The Orbs five-light chandelier from Custom Contract Lighting measures 131 inches wide. www.customcontractlighting.com

From Maiden Home, the Perry accent chair adds interest in any room and pairs well with a variety of design styles. The petite proportions make it perfect as a pair. www.maidenhome.com

DOMESTIC DESIGNS

Quality and customization are the name of the game in U.S.-made home furnishings.

BY AMY MCINTOSH

From Sam Moore, the Rebel swivel chair has dramatically angled arms and swivel functionality. Covered in a rich emerald velvet, this multifunctional piece can be used in pairs to create a conversation area in a living room, or on its own to provide seating in a bedroom. www.sammoore.com

The Girard coffee table from Ethan Allen combines reclaimed wood with the iconic fluted column. Each one-of-a-kind Guanacaste wood top is crosscut to reveal the beauty 100 years in the making. www.ethanallen.com

The Totem portable ceramic lamp from Justice Design features a sleek gray finish and is a perfect accent piece for any tabletop. Handcrafted in Los Angeles, CA. www.jdg.com

The Spectra Home Spectra USA upholstery program offers domestically made, customizable seating options with the style and comfort for which the company is known. Pictured is the Carmen sofa in Vault Fog, with Elise Steel pillows www.spectrahome.com

The Essential sofa from Sabai is made of recycled velvet that is made from 100 percent recycled water bottles and is inherently stain-resistant. Made in High Point, NC. www.sabai.design

The Montgomery Collection from Simply Amish evokes a casual, effortless vibe. Inspired by our surroundings: the mountains, the ocean, nature and the designer's love of board and batten. www.simplyamish.com

Fusion Designs capitalized on the success of their Farmville dining collection by rounding out the collection with the single-pedestal Farmville table. The line is made in the company's Goshen, IN, shop by skilled Amish craftsmen. www.fusiondesign.us

Drawing inspiration from the classics of the French 1940s, the Huck chest is made of quartered ash veneers and ash solids, and the drawer faces are crafted from Lacewood veneer. Custom metal ferrules and hardware are available in polished brass and nickel. www.hickorywhite.com
