Traditional takes

WITH ELEMENTS OF NOSTALGIA, THESE INTRODUCTIONS BRING A TRADITIONAL LOOK UPDATED FOR TODAY'S INTERIORS

1 The beech wood Coco end table, 28 inches wide by 20 inches deep by 25 inches high, has a gold-tooled leather top and brass ferrules. From Mr. & Mrs. Howard for Sherrill Furniture.

2 The midcentury styled, American-made Millbrook chair from Wesley Hall exudes modern comfort, with finessed shaping at shoulders and conical legs. Shown with Nevada Rootbeer mohair.

3 KingsHaven's Baker Street Oval Chandelier is artisan-made of hand-forged iron. It can be customized in medium and small sizes, or in varying styles.

4 With eye catching leg appeal, the Evelina coffee table from Gabby brings simple sophistication into the room.

5 Available in singles or as a pair, Chelsea House's clear glass Ram sculpture has silver specks in the glass for more sparkle. It is 13.5 inches tall and 3.5 inches deep.

6 The Greek goddess of persuasion and seduction influenced Wildwood's Peitho lamp, made of white glazed ceramic. It is 25 inches tall.

7 Norwalk's tight-back Venezia sofa, available in 90- and 110-inch lengths, piques interest with its peaked back and seat and elegant proportions.

8 Marbling queen Jill Seale brings her textile touch to her new collaboration with Port 68. The home accent pieces have custom designed fabrics and one-of-a-kind framed silks.
